

Community Action on Mental Health and Addiction
 Funding allocations through Change Can't Wait! – Round Two
 September 2020

2020 funded projects	Allocated amount	Organizations
Strategic Framework Focus Area: Resilient People and Communities
Ambassador Pilot Program - 9 Block and Stephen Avenue: Ambassadors will walk around City Hall and Stephen Avenue, interacting with people to strengthen a sense of belonging and inclusiveness and provide support as needed.	$45,000	Calgary Downtown Association
Creative Kits for Youth: Mental health focused resiliency tool kits and programming for youth.	$37,500	Families Matter Society of Calgary
Immigrant Family-based Interpreters Emotional Wellness Supports: To introduce information to better support children and youth who are providing interpretation and translation for family members into Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada.	$72,655	The Immigrant Education Society (TIES)
Piloting the Comfort Collection Mental Health Bundle: Client families will receive resources that will provide strategies to promote children’s mental wellbeing through reading.	$25,000	Calgary Reads
Treaty 7 Elders Sharing Circles Calgary and Beyond: Program to virtually connect Elders through online sharing circles to share stories of survival and resiliency as well as discuss the impact of COVID-19 on their communities.	$5,000	Alberta Recreation and Parks Association
Strategic Framework Focus Area: Reduced Stigma
Autism Spectrum Disorder Screening and Education Program: Education and research to reduce stigma and better support people with Autism accessing services in the homeless sector.	$18,200	CUPS Calgary Society
East Meets West Mental Health Campaign and Forum: The campaign will focus on the mental health of the South Asian community and the forum will focus on improved service delivery for the South Asian ethnic group.	$20,000	Punjabi Community Health Services
Pedagogy-based Emotional and Mental Wellness Intervention Pilot for Newcomers: To infuse strengths-based, emotional wellness pedagogy into the teaching, classroom management and lesson planning at settlement agencies.	$74,495	The Immigrant Education Society (TIES)

Community Action on Mental Health and Addiction
 Funding allocations through Change Can't Wait! – Round Two
 September 2020

Speak Up, Speak Out: Open Up about Mental Health: Trained peer outreach to workers to carry out a stigma reduction campaign, provide workshops and presentations to South Asian and Filipino community.	$10,000	Calgary Immigrant Women's Association
Strategic Framework Focus Area: Resilient People and Communities & Reduced Stigma
Cultural Healing Tools for the BIPOC Community: Three cultural healing events that will draw on, and share the rich wellness practices within African, Indigenous and South Asian cultures.	$22,834	The Colour Factor
Learn Together, Recover Together, Resilient Together: South Calgary: A collaborative community development art project will build community and reduce stigma among people living with, or at risk of contracting, HIV.	$25,000	The SHARP Foundation & Habitus Consulting Collective
Mental Wellness Through an Indigenous Lens: This initiative will connect participants with Elders from surrounding First Nations and provide land-based teachings to facilitate mental wellness.	$89,000	Stoney Nakoda Tsuut'ina Tribal Council
Nurture Your Narrative: A Mental Health Storytelling Workshop: Digital storytelling about people's lived experience with mental health, the importance of removing stigma, and how to improve the system of care.	$29,975	The Colour Factor
Recovery Employment Cooperative: A social enterprise cooperative which will improve recovery and employment outcomes for people transitioning from addiction treatment to the workplace.	$58,400	RecoveryWorx
Specialized Caregiver Coach for Caregiver Capacity: Coaches will deliver a supportive four-week workshop called 'COMPASS for the Caregiver' and provide support to caregivers.	$33,400	Alberta Caregivers Association (Caregivers Alberta)
The Community Wellness Desk at the Calgary Public Library Delivering mental health support at the Central Public Library via onsite social workers and service providers for vulnerable Calgarians confronting mental health and addictions challenges.	$22,800	Calgary Public Library Foundation